PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

At Demesne Electrical, we offer high-quality YY Control Cables designed for flexible control and signal transmission in industrial automation, panel building, and machinery. These multicore PVC-sheathed cables are ideal for low-EMI environments, offering excellent flexibility, durability, and ease of installation. Suitable for 300/500V applications, they are available in various sizes and core counts, with numbered black cores and an optional earth. Stocked locally with cut-to-length options, our YY cables are trusted by contractors, OEMs, and system integrators across Ireland.
